

Classic Chamber Concerts

Nancy Kerns, Executive Director
PO Box 7854
Naples, FL 34101
239-434-8505

Info@classicchamberconcerts.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 15, 2017

ACCLAIMED PIANIST DANIELA NAVARRO TO PERFORM WITH FIFTH AVENUE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

(Naples, FL) Renowned pianist Daniela Navarro will perform with Fifth Avenue Chamber Orchestra as part of the Classic Chamber Concerts series at Sugden Theatre in downtown Naples on Monday, March 20th, 2017 at 8pm. Ms. Navarro will be performing Chopin's Piano Concerto No.1 in E minor.

Only 21 years old, Ms. Navarro is a true prodigy, beginning her piano studies at the age of five, and quickly progressing to compete in international competitions. At age 10, she won first place and a special award as the youngest winner in the Valentino Buchi International Piano Competition in Rome, Italy. The list of awards has grown exponentially since, making Ms. Navarro an international sensation with her outstanding performances in locales such as New York's Carnegie Hall, the Salle Cortot in Paris and The Moscow State Conservatory.

"We're honored to have an international talent such as Daniela Navarro join us here in Naples for this concert," says Classic Chamber Concerts Artistic Director and Maestro William Noll.

Tickets for this outstanding concert are $60 and are available by calling the Sugden Theatre box office at 239-263-7990. Most concerts are sell-outs.

For more information about Classic Chamber Concerts please call 239-434-8505 or visit classicchamberconcerts.org.

ABOUT CLASSIC CHAMBER CONCERTS

The mission of Classic Chamber Concerts is to provide world-class music for the enjoyment of Southwest Florida, and to educate and encourage all audiences to enjoy classical music. Founded in 1995, Classic Chamber Concerts featuring emerging artists, rising stars and internationally acclaimed musicians.