

Fifth Avenue Chamber Orchestra

William Noll, Music Director & Conductor

The Fifth Avenue Chamber Orchestra has enriched the cultural life of the region for over a decade through the presentation of works written for smaller orchestral ensembles. Under the leadership of Maestro William Noll it has presented premieres and unique programming otherwise unheard. The orchestra has also featured area soloists as well as those from around the world for Classic Chamber Concerts including Ilya Itin, Philipp Kopachevsky, Priscila Navarro, Nicolay Medvedev, Jared Blajian, and the Peliska brothers.

Maestro William Noll Artistic Director & Conductor

Maestro William Noll is Artistic Director for StayInMay Festival, Classic Chamber Concerts, the Fifth Avenue Chamber Orchestra, and has appeared as guest conductor for Opera Naples. He was also recently appointed as the conductor for The Bach Ensemble. He is a performance veteran of major concert halls in the United States, Europe, Central America and the Far East. He has conducted symphonic, choral and operatic repertoire from Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall in New York, to festivals and tours in Italy, Belgium, Costa Rica and China. Last season he traveled to Russia to serve as a judge for an international piano competition sponsored by the Boris Yeltsin Foundation.

Mr. Noll has held positions with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, the Atlanta Opera, the Choral Guild of Atlanta, Providence Opera Theatre, Miami International Piano Festival; and with summer festivals in Graz, Aspen, Spoleto, Lecce, and Brevard. He has also conducted for the New York City Opera, the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra at Avery Fisher Hall, the New Mexico Symphony, the Savannah Symphony, the Opera Orchestra of New York, the National Orchestra of Costa Rica, the Odessa Philharmonic, The Naples Philharmonic, and the ArtsNaples World Festival Orchestra.

Maestro Noll's catalog of commercial recordings includes choral, symphonic and jazz repertoire on labels such as Newport Classic, InterSound, Pro-Jazz, Time-Life, and Sony. He also has many TV and radio appearances to his credit; choral concerts, jazz orchestra, live simulcasts, and specials for PBS, CBS, NPR, Radio Free-Europe, and over six years of hosting "Fanfare," an Atlanta weekly radio feature.

Additionally, he has served as Music Director for the Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company for almost three decades. He has also served on panels for the National Endowment for the Arts, the USIA, Fulton County Arts Council, Bronx Arts Panel, Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions, Georgia Council for the Arts, and the Classical Nomination Committee for the Grammy Awards. Maestro Noll was recently honored by the United Arts Council of Collier County as a "Stars in the Arts" award recipient.

Daniela Navarro Pianist

María Daniela Navarro Mora was born on May 24, 1996 at Liberia, Costa Rica.

She began piano studies at the age of five. When she was 13, in 2009, she was accepted as student of the Central School of Music of the Tchaikovsky Conservatory in Moscow, Russia, with Master Anatoly Ryabov. Currently she continues her music studies at the Moscow's Tchaikovsky Conservatory with Professor Irina Plotnikova.

Daniela has won several international piano competitions world-wide. In November 2006, at the age of 10, she won first place and a special award as the youngest winner in the Valentino Buchi International Piano Competition in Rome, Italy. By age 12, she won first place of her category and the Grand Prix in the International Competition of Slavic Music for the Piano "Stanislaw Moniuszko", Paris, France. The list of awards has grown and at only 21 years old, she has taken the music world by storm with her brilliant performances.

She has performed in such Music Halls as the Carnegie Hall, New York, and the Salle Cortot, Paris, the Grand Hall at the Moscow State Conservatory, the Tchaikovsky Concert Hall and Saint-Petersburg's Philharmonia.

Tonight we welcome her to Naples and the Sugden Theatre.
